BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Any warrants forwarded to the subscriber, will be located on such land as he may suppose most likely to please his employers. CADWALLADER WALLACE.
Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t*

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 14 miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 1819.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

New-York, July 4.

The hon. Secretary of the Navy left this city this morning for Washington, where, we understand, there will be an immediate meeting of the Heads of the different Departments, no doubt on the subject of the late despatches from Madrid, brought out in the U. S sloop of war Hornet.

We understand the Hornet is again under sailing orders, and is now taking on board provisions for five months. It is probable she will return to Cadiz, with despatches from our government. [Gazette.

THE MEDITERRANEAN SQUADRON.

We have already stated, that the Emperor of Austria and the King of Naples, had visited the American ship Franklin, while our squadron was lying in the bay of Naples. Capt. Sawyer, of the brig Adriatic who has arrived at Boston, from Trieste and Gibraltar, gives the following account of the Royal and Noble guests who have visited that ship: "The Franklin was visited while in Naples by a great many of the Italian and English nobility. May 18th the Emperor and Empress of Austria, King of Naples, Prince Leopold and Wife, with a great number of ladies and gentlemen of both courts, visited the Franklin; they were received by two royal salutes, yards manned by the whole squadron, and the British ship of the line Rochfort. They expressed great satisfaction. The Emperor promised to return some other day by himself, and look through the ship more at his leisure. Among the English nobility that visited the ship was Admirals Sir Sidney Smith, Hotham, Freemantle, and Sir Phillip Durham—they made frequent visits always bringing a number of ladies with them. The 21st the Prince of Prussia visited the ship—he came as a citizen, wishing no parade. The 26th May, the Vice Roy of Sicily visited the ship; was saluted with 21 guns, going and coming. The next day the King of Naple's wife came on board." [New-York Com. Advertiser.

RUMOR OF WAR IN EUROPE.

The Adriatic, arrived at Boston, brings a rumor from Gibraltar, (which, however we deem altogether improbable,) that "the Emperor of Russia has demanded that the King of Prussia should abdicate his throne, in favor of his own family." It is added, that there was strong talk of war; and that Prince Metternitch, Prime Minister of Austria, who was at Naples with his Imperial sovereign, was to proceed on the 2nd of June, to the Court of France. [Ibid.

SEPARATION OF MAINE.

It appears certain, from the returns already received of the yeas and nays given in Maine on Monday last, on the Separation of the District from Massachusetts, that a majority far exceeding the fifteen hundred required by law in favor of that measure has been obtained; and that the separation is inevitable. Tho' we regret the result, we most heartily bid the citizens of Maine—'God speed.' [Centinel.

From the New-York Daily Advertiser.

We re-published from a Kentucky paper, a short time since, some remarks on the subject of the sales of public lands, and the importance of changing the mode of disposing of them hereafter, according to the plan contained in Mr. King's bill brought into and passed by the Senate at the last session of Congress. The following article, taken from the Petersburg (Va.) Intelligencer, contains some interesting facts relating to the same subject. By the statements here made, it appears, that there was due in September, 1818, for lands sold in the state of Mississippi, and in the territory of Alabama, no less a sum than TWELVE MILLIONS, FOUR HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO THOUSAND, SEVEN HUNDRED & THIRTY-TWO DOLLARS. Well may the writer of it enquire—"How is this vast sum ever to be paid by the people of the West?" That some radical change in the mode of disposing of these lands is indispensably requisite, we think cannot be doubted.—We consider it far better for the nation that no sales should be made for years to come, than that this ruinous and speculating system of selling them on credit should be persisted in. We think, as the times go, the Treasury will be fortunate, if ever one half of this immense debt should be realised.

SALES.

The total sales made by authority of Congress under the confederation, amounted to 5,887,986. There were sold under the act of the 10th of May, 1796, before the establishment of the Land Offices, at not less than two dollars per acre, 40,566. The total sales of Land in Mississippi and Alabama, from the opening of the several Land Offices, to the 30th Sept 1818—2,514,111 acres—amounting to 7,950,660 dollars.

DUES.

Balance due the government on account of Public Lands, on the 30th September, 1818—in Mississippi, by individuals—2,102,852 dollars; total balance outstanding, 2,312,342—In Alabama, by individuals—3,068,136; total balance outstanding, 3,079,393. The total amount due by purchasers of lands, north-west of the river Ohio, in the state of Mississippi, and the Alabama territory, on the 30th September, 1818—Twelve Millions Four Hundred and Seventy-two Thousand, Seven Hundred and Thirty-two Dollars.

How is this vast sum ever to be paid by the people of the West? Acts for the relief of the purchasers of the Public Lands, have been passed by Congress, session after session, as mere matters of course, until the sum owing has accumulated to this frightful amount. It is true, the Secretary of the Treasury has lately offered to receive the notes of such banks as are in good credit in their respective districts: Yet, as regards a great deal of paper of this description, for the service it will be to the government, he had as well consent to take superannuated Almanacks.

New-York, August 3.

MR. GUILLE'S ASCENSION.

Yesterday a novel scene was presented to us. For the first time in America an aeronautic ascension, so often attempted, was actually executed, and in a manner that gave universal satisfaction. We have often been surprised that the frequent exhibitions of this kind in Europe should draw forth so large crowds, and excite such acclamations as are always expressed by the spectators, but in seeing this our surprize has ceased. The scene was interesting beyond all expectation.

At an early hour in the afternoon every carriage was in requisition for the Gardens, and Broadway, the Bowery, and all the roads leading to that place were crowded, and at about half past 5, all the avenues became impassible. The lower part of the town was nearly depopulated. Every tree, fence and shed in the vicinity of the Garden was covered with spectators, anxiously waiting to see the Balloon ascend. To gratify those who were in the Garden, the Balloon was partially inflated about 5 o'clock, and suspended about ten feet from the ground. At 5 minutes past 6 it was completely inflated, and immediately rose about 40 feet, in which situation it was suffered to remain but a short time. At 18 minutes past 6, Mr. Guille advanced to the centre of the circle, and after making some little examination of the cords which connected the Paraclute with the Balloon, he took leave of his wife, bowed gracefully to the spectators, and took his position in the Basket. In an instant the Balloon began to ascend. The Parachute was evidently lower on one side than the other, and much apprehension was felt for the safety of the voyager. At the moment of ascending a gust of wind sprung up from the northwest, and drove the Balloon directly over the tall poplars in the Garden, so that the basket was forced upon them, and carried off some of the small branches. On clearing the trees the fine scene was presented; the Balloon ascended with majesty and rapidity to a great height, the wind wafting it towards Long Island. In less than 10 minutes the Parachute was detached from the Balloon, and was seen for nearly half an hour gradually descending, apparently over Long Island—the Balloon continuing in the mean time to ascend till it finally disappeared in the clouds.

Till about 9 o'clock in the evening much anxiety was manifested for the fate of the Æronaut, when it was ascertained that he reached the earth in safety, having landed at Bushwick, near Williamsburgh, Long Island, about 6 miles from Vauxhall Garden. He reached town about half past 8 o'clock with his parachute, in perfect health and spirits.

The engagement of Mr. G. was honorably fulfilled, and we sincerely hope he may receive the remuneration he so eminently deserves. — Mer. Adv.

August 4.

We are very happy to inform our readers, that Mr. Guille's Balloon was discovered at sun-rise on Tuesday on the water, at Oyter Bay South, by Mr. John Carll, jr. who, as soon as it drifted on the Meadows, secured it, let off the gas, and brought it safe to the city this morning, agreeably to a written request attached to the Balloon. The only injury it has received, and which is easily repaired, are two or three small holes made by Mr. Carll to let off the gas. Oyster Bay South, where the Balloon was found, is 32 miles from this city. We hope soon to witness another ascension.

[Gazette.

The two Indians (says the W. Reserve Chronicle) who were executed at Huron, for the murder of Wood and Bishop, suffered the sentence of the law with much unconcern, any further than that they hated to appear before the Great Spirit with halters about their necks, and should have preferred being shot or tomahawked; and one would have been glad to live till he had killed six more white people, in order to make up the even number of twenty, having as yet killed but fourteen.

Charleston, [S C.] July 30.

MORE PIRACY—AND MURDER!!!

Seven men were apprehended in this city on Wednesday night last, under a bench warrant from the Hon. Judge Drayton, and committed to goal, charged with Piracy and Murder! Several more of the gang are now lurking about our city, and the police are making diligent search for them.—One of the prisoners, named Reed, turned state's evidence, and yesterday gave a partial statement of their nefarious and bloody transactions, before Mr. Parker, district attorney.

It appears that these men, or most of them, belonged to the smack Lawrence, Capt. Attwick, the property of Mr. J. J. Daniels, of this city, which vessel arrived here on the 16th instant, ostensibly from a wrecking cruize off the Florida coast, with a cargo of coffee, in bulk. On his arrival, Capt. A. reported, that "on the 14th inst. near Musquito, he fell in with a schooner, not having a single person on board; that he took out a load of coffee in bulk, and proceeded to this place."

From the declarations of Reed however, as far as obtained, it appears that the sloop was sent by the owner, from Havana, (where he now is) to the Florida coast, to cut wood. She there met with a small piratical sloop, the capt. and crew of which affected to believe that Capt. Attwick had brought money to purchase a cargo, which the latter denied—stating that he had but seven dollars. This was taken from him, and he hung up for some time in the shrouds to make him confess. After being convinced that he had no money, the piratical captain proposed to Attwick and his crew to join him in a piratical cruize: After consulting his men, they agreed, with the exception of the above named Reed. He being indirectly threatened in case of non-compliance, at length acceded, as he declares, to save his life. Both sloops then sailed in company, and soon after, on the Florida coast, they fell in with the British brig Ann, Capt. Seeley, from Matanzas, bound to Falmouth, (Eng.) in distress, which they boarded and ran ashore. The brig's crew consisted of ten, including officers. Six of her men joined the pirates, and then informed the captain of the gang, that the captain and mate of the brig could not be trusted. Immediately after, they, with the cook and one man, who had refused to join the pirates, were inhumanly murdered and thrown overboard!! Both sloops were then loaded with coffee, as above described, & the story made up that was told here, previous to their leaving the brig.

It is believed the foregoing statement is substantially correct; and we hope in our next to give a further developement of this horrid and abominable transaction. Indeed, we are in possession of further particulars, which it is deemed injudicious at present to make public. We sincerely hope that every virtuous citizen will exert his energies to bring to the gallows, a gang of cut-throat villains, who are the disgrace of humanity.

FROM A JAMAICA PAPER.

Arrived brig Gustavus from Terre Ferme. She was obliged to cut both her cables and proceed to sea, in consequence of the Indians rising on them, and attempting to take the vessel. While her boat was on shore, receiving the cargo, a number of Indians came down on the beach, and endeavored to take possession of her; at the same time several other canoes, laden with grass, in which they had hid their muskets and bows and arrows, approached the brig, and, when within reach of her, commenced an attack upon her; but from the prompt exertions of the mate and crew in immediately repelling them, they made for the shore, and some of the Indians, who had got on board, jumped overboard. The boat by this time had made its escape, and reached the brig in safety. We are sorry to state, that, during the skirmish, the mate, in loading one of the great guns, had his arm so severely shattered as to require amputation. Had it not been for his prompt exertions in getting the fire arms ready, the whole of the crew would certainly have been murdered, and the vessel destroyed, as there were a considerable number of Indians ready to assist in the contest.

The schooner Casador, under the republican flag of Buenos Ayres, off the Corn Islands, fell in with and took charge of a barge, mounting one four pounder, with 28 muskets, pistols, &c. with ammunition complete. There not being any person on board at the time, we manned and ordered her for Old Providence, until she should be claimed: but from the papers found in her, it was supposed that the notorious pirate, Mitchell, was her captain.

On the 24th February, the Casador, then commanded by capt. Gautier, and mounting 5 guns, and 42 men, and the Atrevida, of 2 four pounders and 29 men, commanded by captain Lindberg, fell in with and captured, in the river St. John, three Spanish vessels, mounting 11 guns and 83 men, with cargoes of jerk beef, (900,000 lbs.) cocoa and indigo. The total amount valued at 50,000l. The Spaniards defended themselves with great bravery. Twenty-two prisoners were taken, the greater part of whom were wounded, and two of them died. The rest of the vessels' crew jumped overboard, and escaped to the shore.

LONGEVITY.

Died in New-Rochelle, N. Y. the 30th June, a black man by the name of Prince, a native of Africa, who arrived in this country in the year 1734, then about 30 years of age, and has resided in New-Rochelle ever since till, his death, aged 115 years; has been a pauper of the town about 22 years.

AN ABOMINABLE FRAUD PRACTISED BY A TOBACCO PLANTER.

The inspectors of tobacco for this port, upon inspecting a lot of tobacco, on the 12th of last month, brought to this city by Messrs. Brutton & Simpson, and consigned to Messrs. Breedlove, Bradford & Robeson, found eleven hogsheads with heads from four to seven inches thick, made of green oak timber; the staves from one and a half to two inches thick; on weighing the heading of one of the hogsheads it was found to be 194 lbs. and the remaining eleven were of similar dimensions. Ten hhds of the above were marked C. S. and one R. S.; the planters' names are Charles Simmons and R. Simmons, residing in Sumner county, Tennessee.

From the Baltimore Morning Chronicle.

The following are the names of the surviving signers of our declaration of independence:

"JOHN ADAMS, of Massachusetts,
WILLIAM ELLERY, of Rhode-Island,
WILLIAM FLOYD, of New-York,
CHARLES CARROLL, of Maryland, and
THOMAS JEFFERSON, of Virginia.

To which we may add the name of the venerable CHARLES THOMPSON, of Pennsylvania, who signed the declaration of independence as secretary to congress, and which office he held during the whole revolution, and until the organization of the present government."

What a train of reflection is excited by the perusal of this fact. Five out of the fifty-six patriots, who witnessed the birth of our national independence, are still living. Compare this fact with another, that the emperor of Austria has recently dined on board of an American ship of war, and to what bewildering sensations does it lead; what an advance of national greatness in the short period of forty-three years. During that term of time this nation has shewn to the world the only example of a republic remaining on the surface of the globe on which we tread. Kings & emperors have bowed in homage to the American character, and five of those who watched over the cradle of the young Hercules, are still living witnesses of the fact! And is there a heart so cold and so dead, that does not throb with anxiety for the preservation of a republic, whose early auspices have been so glorious and so resplendent. Does not the single fact we have mentioned, justify the fondest anticipations on our part, that our nation is indeed born to high destinies. Could the curtain of futurity have been withdrawn from the eyes of those patriots who signed the declaration of independence, with what confidence would they have added the sanction of their names! They were cheered by no such animating spectacle—all before their eyes was cloud, and darkness, and storm.

We mention this fact not for the purpose of idle declamation, but as evidence that our countrymen should not despond under the pressure of temporary difficulties.—What for example have we to contend with now, in comparison with what our ancestors had. We feel commercial distress, and the want of a circulating medium;—they beheld towns in flames—their countrymen butchered by the sword of a proud and haughty foe—penury, want & famine in their most hideous forms—and is it for us to despond—the sons of those sires that could look such apalling calamities in the face!—no, the time will shortly arrive, and at no distant period, when we shall be astonished at the despondency that we now suffer. When we have by means so evidently providential been preserved, can we believe that we are no longer objects of providential superintendence. It is ingratitude, and the grossest ingratitude to the Being from whom we have received such multiplied mercies to doubt his protection now. Let those who despond, look at the declaration of our independence, & blush at their own unworthiness—blush that they should even dream of dejection, and complain of the hardness of the times, when those very evils under which they are so pusillanimously repining have in a great measure been occasioned by their own conduct.—We are suffering the consequence of our own folly, and we complain as if we had been visited by famine or by pestilence.

While on the declaration of Independence, we would suggest it as a matter worthy of consideration, whether it ought not not to be a subject of school exercise.—The principles of our government cannot be too early impressed on the minds of the rising race, if we wish to ensure permanence to our republic. Impressions made in early youth are the most vivid and indelible. It surely cannot be unworthy of those to whom the destinies of our beloved country are hereafter to be committed, to inherit from early infancy a reverence for the free institutions of their ancestors.—English history is often taught in our schools while American history is forgotten. Many projects have been proposed for the purpose of forming a national character, decidedly and exclusively American—but we have considered them for the most part as visionary and impracticable. But it does appear to us, that no plan for the accomplishment of so desirable an object, abounds with so many advantages as the present. The children of republicans should be taught in their schools, what republicanism is—short and simple elementary treatises might easily be compiled, in which the superior advantages of our own form of Government, might be illustrated in a plain and familiar manner to the minds of the rising race. Those who think that such ideas are speculative merely, are not aware how much the splendor of monarchy is calculated to dazzle and delude the infant heart.

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d ult. as a runaway, a negro man named WILLIAM BROWN: he appears to be about 24 years of age; 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high; round face, and black complexion; well set; has a scar on his left cheek, and several on his breast, also one on his left arm below the elbow, on the inside. Said negro says that his right name is Burril Artis; that he was born free at Prince Edward court house, Virginia, and so recorded in the clerk's office at that place; that he is thirty years of age; that he served with com. Barney on the Patuxent; he also served in the U. S. service, under Decatur, at Tripoli; and in both instances by the name of Burrill Artis.
The owner is requested to come and prove property pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.
ANDW. ROUNSAVELL,
August 7 Jailor.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.
I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rosel who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr. George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state, & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

The merchants in the adjoining counties in Virginia will find it to their advantage in buying stone ware from him, as he is determined none shall sell lower than he does, his prices being at this time from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than they are in Baltimore; and he will warrant his ware to be of a good quality, which has been acknowledged by the very best judges of that article.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale:
On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called Whitland and Cole,
lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Mattawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood. ALSO,
At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.
Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25
